

Dear Valued Customers,

With normalcy finally returning to the Food and Beverage Industry, Arrow would like to extend our gratitude and support to our loyal customers. As the industry continues to reopen, we will be altering and improving our operations so that we can provide you with the superior service we've always been able to achieve. With that said, we will be making changes to our delivery schedules in order to ensure that our quality service continues. Please pay attention to these delivery day changes by looking at the days served portion of your invoice. As circled below, this section on your invoice will display the days we will be servicing your establishment. Once again, we cannot thank you enough for your devoted loyalty to our company and we look forward to seeing our industry rise back on top!

Sincerely,
Arrow Linen Supply
